Le Frisson de la liberté (French Edition) Florence Clerfeuille

Deux jeunes filles à l'orée du monde adulte à la fin des années soixante, alors qu'un certain mois de mai se profile à l'horizon. Deux amies d'enfance. Deux inséparables. Leur relation va-t-elle résister à de nouvelles envies de liberté ? À de nouvelles responsabilités ? Aux bouleversements qui s'annoncent ? En septembre 1967, Jacqueline et Maryvonne s'installent dans la chambre qu'elles vont partager dans une pension de famille de Montpellier. La première va étudier à l'université, la seconde démarre une carrière d'institutrice dans le privé. Toutes les deux sont pleines d'enthousiasme, mais que leur réserve vraiment cette nouvelle vie qui commence ? Récit d'une année initiatique pour les deux jeunes filles, ce livre qui dresse un tableau de la société française de la fin des années soixante est aussi un appel à la réflexion sur la condition féminine.

Présentation de l'auteur : Biographe et correctrice, Florence Clerfeuille aime jouer avec les mots. Elle aime aussi écouter les gens se raconter et est particulièrement sensible aux histoires de ses consœurs. Après des témoignages, des recueils de nouvelles, des textes courts de science-fiction et une trilogie policière en milieu rural, elle a choisi de se lancer dans la publication d'une saga familiale sur trois générations. Le frisson de la liberté en est le premier tome.
