Billy Granger doesn't squander his life. Life squanders him before he gets a chance to pull it off. But he does give it one hell of a try. He is born to be a rock star. For him, everything is possible. He's gorgeous, with remarkable talent and ambition, yet it's his charisma that wins him the real attention. His flashy new band, the Unreal Gods, quickly rise to the top of Portland's thriving music scene. When he and the band sign lucrative, multi-album contracts with a major record label, stardom for Billy seems inevitable. But just at the brink of national fame his real struggle begins, the epic struggle of Everyman...
