THE BLACK EYED PEAS Jake Brown

As defined in Billboard Magazines biography of the Black Eyed Peas, positive messages and break dancing are integral parts of hip-hop culture, but by 1990 those elements had been temporarily eclipsed by the tough gangsta image and bleak but compelling lyrics of West Coast groups like N.W.A. However, despite sharing a zip code, Black Eyed Peas' vision goes beyond the cracked-sidewalk vignettes and sampled gunfire of Los Angeles' gangsta style.

Operating in a life-imitating-art-imitating-life cycle that they are apt to keep rotating via hit single after album after tour around the world, the Black Eyed Peas movement has generated 30 million in album sales over the past 10 years, and as global locals of the international touring circuit, their musical and stylistic revolution can only continue to grow. In the pages of this biography of the Black Eyed Peas, fans will read every colorfully intimate detail of that journey.
