Graveyard of Empires Lincoln Cole

"Each character brings its own voice to the table, their own skills and flaws, slowly weaving the net of what will become the greatest struggle this galaxy has ever seen. It's been a delight to get to know them, and I can't wait to see how the story will unfold. Hurry up already!"

- Michelle Arzu, author of *The Librarian

"The novel ends on a cliffhanger with multiple conflicts and characters' fates unresolved, leaving the door open for a sequel."

- Indie Reader

"...a grand epic..."

- Publisher's Weekly

BOOK DESCRIPTION: A Galactic Space Opera, Graveyard of Empires builds the world and sets the stage for an enormous conflict between planets and Empires. Argus Wade was born into the Ministry, an archaic and barbaric religion that spans the entire galaxy, and knew from an early age that he was different. The threat of death, and worse, loomed over him because of his special gifts.

When he tries to protect his daughter from this fate by hiding her, his worst fears are realized as the Ministry begins tightening the noose. If they discover that she is his child, or worse that he kept her from them, both of their lives will be at risk.

Meanwhile, the galaxy is facing a new conflict in the outer reaches. A new rebellion is forming to tear down the established government. Battle lines are being drawn and everyone is choosing sides. But, they are all going to find out that the cost of war is higher than anyone could have anticipated...

Graveyard of Empires is a dystopian science fiction novel that introduces huge characters and conflicts, creating a new galaxy with roots in the worlds of Asimov, Tolkien, and King.
