About the Book

I Have A Husband, I Need A Boyfriend is a series of erotic short stories, about married women looking for lovers.

(Story 1) Denise has a young lover, Ron, but when he finds another girl she looks for a new boyfriend and finds Adrian. But he's as married as she is and when his wife finds out about their affair that ends too. Bored out of her skull she joins a community group who look after the elderly and comes across Charlie, who's much older than her but proves to be very dominant.

About the Author

Sally Hollister is without doubt one of the most gifted writers of erotica of the 21st century. She creates believable characters and credible situations which draw the reader into her arousing world and not the absurd couplings other writers might create. Hers is a genuine world where swinging and swapping, adultery and lovers are abundant but believably so. She is truly a mistress of the genre, with over 700 stories available on the Kindle, including short stories, collections and novellas.

About the Publisher

Eroticafe are publishers of erotica, primarily published on Amazon's Kindle platform. They are not publishers of books for those who wish a cheap thrill but aim for a higher quality of writing with believable characters and situations which are no less spicy and arousing.
