Including these stories from top authors:

The Journalist by Stephanie Silvers

"Would you like to remove your clothing?" I had been asked politely by a woman on the way in, at what one might normally call the coat check. She had handed me a white Venetian mask, her blue eyes trailing with interest over the contours of my body from behind her own mask. Beside me, a blonde woman with a breathtaking smile removed her long woollen coat revealing a jewelled underwear set beneath. Looking further, towards the party, I saw men in very little. The coats-and-more check girl was looking at me expectantly.

Squirting Lessons by KT Lynn

He began to use that one finger he had in me rapidly, he'd started to move it up as fast as he could, tapping the spot every time. He used his other hand to pull back the side so that another finger could get shoved in, taking his hand out for a second, leaning in to add his saliva to the lubrication already flowing freely from my pussy and then reverting back to the two-finger thrust motion.

The City that Never Sleeps by Stephanie Silvers

What the heck- nobody was going to interrupt us this late at night, I thought. I looked up into Michael's eyes and licked my lips, then buried my head under my coat and found the tip of his cock with my lips. I sucked it luxuriously, tenderly, and was rewarded by hearing him groan, feeling his hips shift. The train rocked gently, offering me a counterpoint rhythm, and his satiny hardness felt like a caress against my lips and tongue.
