The explicit memoir Undressing Confessions: Naive ... Novice ... Nymphet takes readers along on the author's steamy, coming-of-age journey. Sandra is a naughty girl, a nymphet who gets what she wants, including the men she surrounds herself with and the nightclubs where she dances the night away, meeting more men to fill her life. She is young and beautiful, and men throw themselves at her, not only for her striking Portuguese beauty, but for the uninhibited sex she provides them. At the age of fifteen, she leaves home in Canada for a month-long vacation in Portugal, where her older cousin introduces her to the night life. There she learns how to entice men by dressing exotically, realizing how easy it is to tempt them with her exquisite beauty and perfect body. It is where she has sex for the first time with a young officer she lures into the barracks, where she undresses him and throws her naked body on him. She learns that she can wrap men around her little finger by flashing her eyes and teasing them with her sexual behavior. Written from her own experiences, the book covers five years of the author's life that will leave readers with a pounding heart and sweaty palms. And, her story is 100 percent true, boldly contrasting with the slew of erotic fiction currently hitting the shelves. From wild sexual experimentation to an inner exploration of female desire, her story is poised to grip readers and not let go. After 25 years of secrecy, Sandra Bettencourt has broken her silence. The author of Poetic Indulgence: Where Poetry Meets Real Life has deviated from poetry to write her erotic memoir. Publisher's website: <http://sbprabooks.com/SandraBettencourt>
