35 Things Every Sassy Saved Single Girl Should Know!: All About Life, Love and Everything in Between Loria Hubbard

I can honestly say I've seen some of everything in my years as a Sassy Saved Single Girl! The highlight being an array of astonishing men, both good and bad. As you'll often hear me say...if I believed all men were dogs as their often referenced in our society, I would've thrown in the towel years ago and joined a convent. Honey, we know that ain't happenin'! Dealing with each 'good' or 'bad' man in my life has allowed me to learn the best way to navigate it! I can't give all the credit to men though...I've had many great people help me learn many great lessons! I'm sure you're painfully aware of a few, if not all the great 'motherly rules' we heard while growing up. A few of my favorites are; "If you can't say anything nice, don't say it all," or "Don't go out with a wet head, you'll catch a cold," and "Call me when you get there, so I know you made it safe." We've been hearing rules and guiding principles since we burst onto the scene. As babies, the first words we learn and repeat are "No," which is a result of being told so because we're breaking some sort of rule. Rules guide our life! There are rules of fashion, hair, men and money...and that's just to name a few. Maybe I should've said, rules rule our life! Now, this eBook is not about rules in a demanding sense; but in a laid-back, your momma probably didn't tell you-need to know sense. I'm sure your mom didn't tell you, settling in your relationship is about as bad as getting off the pot too soon and peeing all over the floor (Chapter 12). '35 Things Every Sassy Saved Single Girl Should Know' addresses matters of the single's heart. Maybe you didn't know how to make your eyes roll in the back of your head, or not to get hung up on appearances and how to be a happy as a single woman but you will after spending a couple hours marinating on my words. I feel my life as a Sassy Single has not been all that bad because over time I've learned everything I'm going to talk about here. So get ready ladies! Grab your pen and paper, it's going to be a thrilling yet enlightening ride...enjoy!
