Anywhere With You Britney King

“I was blown away by the author’s capacity to catch my attention from page one to finish. The writing was incredible.” – Connected By Books

“Britney King has a way of ripping your heart out to a point you feel like you will never recover but then ... BAM she brings you right back up to your highest.” – Saints and Sinners Books

“What Ms. King did to portray the struggles and setbacks life handed her two leads was absolute perfection in my book.” – Sarah’s Reading Corner

“A beautifully written love story!” — United Indie Book Blog

“What a book!!! This is my first ever book by Britney King and I fell in love with her writing instantly. It’s so poetic, so full of depth and vivid, that I felt like I was part of this story. I was brought to tears by her wonderful words more than once, but by the end I was left content and happy by this incredible love story.” — Connected By Books

They say opposites attract. For Jack and Amelie, that statement is about as close to the truth as it gets.

She runs from anything that so much smells like love. And, well, as for Jack, he's always been a fan of the chase. Especially where she's concerned.

Which is exactly what happens when he proposes... to accompany her on a cross-country road trip.

A bet is made. True to form, Jack puts everything on the table—while Amelie keeps her cards tucked close to her heart.

The question remaining when it all shakes out—is whether it's possible they can both win?

Will a road trip across the country finally teach them to meet in the middle? Or simply drive them further apart?

This is the continuation of a love story that (like many) was never really over.
