Sole Survivor: A J. Carter & Associates Novel T. M. Carper

SECRETS For twenty years, Lisa Robertson's lived with the memory of her high-school sweetheart's murder. She watched, helpless, as the fire consumed his house, killing both him and his parents. The police think they caught the arsonist, but Lisa knows better. There was more than one person outside Jim's house that night. If she talks, she won't last any longer than the supposed arsonist. DO A school assignment reveals holes in a triple homicide that rocked a small town. Katherine Winters thinks that with a bit of work, she might be able to solve the case once and for all. The only problem is the sole living witness refuses to speak with her. KILL When they are attacked and Lisa is taken, Katherine knows she's closing in on the truth. With help from Aidan Murphy, an employee at J. Carter & Associates, will she live long enough to find the real killer? Or has her time run out at last?
