When a ghost-hunting episode of the popular paranormal web series Othernaturals goes bad, two cast members quit, and Othernaturals producer, telepath Rosemary Sharpe, finds herself carrying the ghost of an axe murderer on her shoulder. Now she must hire two new members for her team before her show moves on to investigate a haunted dormitory at a state university, all the while keeping her angry companion at bay. Disgraced psychic Andrew Fletcher and renowned healer Kaye Whittington sign on, joining Rosemary's team which includes an animal empath and his traveling companion Vladimir the cat, a psychic vampire who is more cheerleader than bloodsucker, and a haunted medium who shares head space with his best friend who died twenty years ago. Even the show's director can see ghosts. Though she is empowered with the telepathy that made her grandfather famous, Rosemary feels that the supernatural need not be real, as long as her viewers are intrigued. But the murderous spirit she carries has other ideas about avenging himself on those who abducted him from his haunting grounds – and on any innocent spirit they may encounter.
