Recovery is a hard thing to do when the person who has made an attempt on your life is still after you, and Natasha has to come to terms with her actions while accepting their outcome. Meanwhile, her family isn't out of the danger of being guilty by association. When life expectancy has little hope, God shows His powerhouse of might and sheds light at the end of the tunnel, but not before a rescue effort goes horribly wrong, leaving those involved at the mercy of twelve.
