The Beta Theta Pi Foundation plays an instrumental role in "building men of principle for a principles life". Primary funder of the Men of Principle initiative since its inception in 1988, the Foundation plays a key role in the success of the Fraternity by securing, investing, and allocating generous donor gifts to leadership and educational programs that serve the Fraternity's members and constituents, ones with noteworthy, effective, proven results. Prospective Betas can use Beta Statesmen to learn about the men who blazed paths to follow. Active members can point to it with pride in appreciation of the remarkable heritage of outstanding men who have gone before. Because there is value in knowing one's heritage, the author has collected an anthology of hundreds of Betas who have placed high personal priority on public service over personal gain. Included are elected and appointed officials at the national, state/province and local level, foreign statesmen, executives and/or benefactors of worldwide service organizations as well as a selection of other leading public figures.
