Life Forces is a story, based on actual events, that takes place in a doppelganger version of late 1980's America. Six individuals five alive, and one not, find their lives connected with romance, and an organ transplant. The transplant saves a life, but also brings new adventures and painful memories to the recipient. The story features much serendipity and many second chances to get things right. The characters muddle through challenges, and learn important life lessons. The challenges encountered, whether self inflicted or other inflicted, help them to find their path in life. The Life Force is the soul that we all have and its growth is contingent on free will choices we make to serve the light or darkness' to be selfless of selfish. Enjoy your journey and find your true self in this story.
