The Enemy has a one page playbook. He's not very creative, and yet he's incredibly successful. Why? Because most believers don't recognize what he's up to. His predictable playbook has three main objectives: deceive, distract, and discredit (Nehemiah 6). That's it. That's the big secret. He deceives you, he distracts you, he discredits you, and in so doing he keeps you from fulfilling your God-given destiny. Porn is the devil's poison of choice. But unlike most poisons, it won't kill you right away. No, this is a slow acting toxin that takes time to reveal its lethal nature. Porn accomplishes all of Satan's objectives. It deceives you, it distracts you, and it discredits you. It seduces you with enticing promises of pleasure and fulfillment, but leaves you chasing a high with a thirst that can never be quenched, like a strung out junkie. It won't deliver on its promises, but it will deliver bondage, pain, broken relationships, broken trust, and so much worse. God has called you for Something Greater, but you will never fully realize your God-given potential so long as you are a slave to your flesh. In this book lies the key to your freedom and your deliverance. Are you up for the challenge? Can you live God's best? Or will you settle for a life of defeat and disappointment? The choice is yours.
