Little Weebee is an American Character doll originally named Toodles. She was "born" sometime in the 1950s and was a very popular doll. These dolls had jointed elbows and knees which made it possible for them to pose in many different positions. We named our doll Weebee after a small ultra-light monoplane. In this short story, little Weebee follows her dream of becoming a Park Ranger by spending the summer in Great Smoky Mountains National Park as a Volunteer Seasonal Ranger.
