A Giraffe and A Half Shel Silverstein

A boy has a giraffe that can be lengthened. Can you imagine that? Nothing is impossible to the author. Then do you know what will happen if the boy dresses it with a hat and a suit and stick a piece of rose on its nose? The free imagination and vivid pictures make this childrens poem very interesting. Pictures are composed from simple to complicated ways. Rhythm of sentences ranges from light to heavy. All these bring children a large space of imagination.
