6 x 9 Parenting

Even though your child is nothing like a dog, knowing a few things about dog training will give you a whole new view of parenthood.

A dog-trainer and stepfather offers parents a fresh and insightful approach to loving, compassionate and effective parenting techniques. Starting out with why so many of the things parents try with their kids don't work, he offers strategies straight from the kennel that make perfect sense in the family room: --Discipline leads to more freedom --If you make him mind, he'll still love you --It's easy to loosen up, but hard to tighten up --Don't confuse restraining with training
