A Gift for Fiona (The Love Letters Series Book 2) Suzanne G. Rogers

With one sister married and another soon to be engaged, Fiona Robinson worries she'll be on the shelf. She pins her hopes on a handsome viscount, but his unexpected proposal to another girl hands her a stinging and demoralizing defeat. A new acquaintance awakens all her senses—until she realizes he's related to the girl who stole her beau. On the heels of her public humiliation, should Fiona instead consider marriage to a much older man whom she could never love?

Fiona's unconventional, earthy looks and mischievous personality appeal to Rory Braithwaite much more than any other woman he's ever met. Unfortunately, his sister has been the means of ruining Fiona's happiness. Can he convince Fiona of his sincerity before she makes a mistake she'll regret for the rest of her life...and his?

Sweet Victorian romance!
