An Exposition of the First Epistle of John John Stock

John Stock was for 37 years a curate, vicar and lecturer in the Church of England, serving the parish church in Finchingfield, Essex. As he explains in the Preface, illness compelled him to retire from pastoral ministry but enabled him to complete this exposition of 1 John.

This commentary is a little different to those of Robert Candlish or James Morgan in that it does not principally strive to capture the overall drift of the argument of the epistle. Stock rather delves into each verse or section, allowing its contents to speak for themselves. In doing so he employs some wonderful illustration and applications. A little wordy at times but well worth the effort. Highly regarded by Charles Spurgeon alongside Candlish and Morgan.

First published in 1865, this work has been completely re-typeset for issue as an eBook.
