Ever dream you were flying without a plane? Ever dream you were naked in front of a hundred people? Ever have the same dream over and over? Ever wonder what on earth it all means? DreamWalker explores the meaning behind images revealed in more than three decades of the author's meticulously kept dream journals. A corporate executive turned entrepreneur, Duffey utilizes her dreams to bolster her intuition by utilizing subliminal messages she receives in the quiet of the night. She shares how sound decisions were made and fears conquered. The author provides insight into understanding common dream symbols, and she includes those specific to her life as a woman working in a fast paced and competitive environment. Important suggestions are given on how to remember dreams, making it possible for the reader to harness their power and make confident decisions about work and life.
