A young maiden from the lonely mining town of Blackwood where her mother works, fixes her marriage to an elderly of 52. Being a girl with a religious upbringing and devoted to her mother, Jana a bit of a over sexed girl gives her consent to her mother and gets married to Ramos. Her marriage does not last long. She meets a young stranger in town who happened to be the owner of virtually the whole town. She begins to have a clandestine with the young man.

Ramos her estranged husband coming to know of her affair with someone who he cannot ever dream of fighting, has no option but to abandon Jana and disappear from her life. Jana then begins to be more bold and she spends more time with her young lover. Later they decide to get married and after marriage Jana is forced to change her way of life to fit into her billionaire husband's society. She takes up the challenge and educates herself and comes out with flying colors. With a college degree under her belt. Happy beyond any misgiving her husband, Carl, rewards her with a very special dinner outing and a fabulous session of love making./
