Despite all the attempts Slade has made to put Skye and Cayson back together, nothing has worked. Cayson refuses to see reason. His anger and rage drive him forward. But when Slade comes up with a new idea, will it work? Or will Cayson see right through the charade?

Conrad continues his immoral lifestyle, juggling several girls at once and keeping a relationship with the infamous Georgia Price. But what happens when the tabloids spot them together and make them first-page news?

Arsen isn't himself, and he's more lost than he's ever been before. Finding something in his mother's old closet causes Arsen to question everything—including himself.
