Ocean Pathways Joan Crevcoure

Ocean Pathways is an historical and informative book based on the personal experience of Maryknoll Sisters who lived in the Marshall Islands with the Marshallese from the mid-1900s through 2010. The material shared in this book includes history of the Marshall Islands, the culture, the people, the environs and its effect on the life style, and the local government. It also speaks to the influence of the United Nations in developing these islands, and the role of the United States.
