Steve Zeller is a wealthy family man and womanizer. His tragic death at age thirty-five groups him with four other dead people: an African teenager, a Russian security service (FSB) operative, an Indian prostitute, and an Arkansan Killer. He promptly ends up antagonizing his group members, practically guaranteeing they would undermine his chance of entering heaven. Deeply worried, but determined to stay out of hell, he mounts a preemptive self-defense strategy. Two Doors uses the lives of five disparate individuals to walk us to a stunningly logical and unambiguous conclusion. As you enjoy the easy read, you will find yourself being provoked into revisiting your own beliefs.
