I had a dream last night about a book that was written by a friend and passed from person to person around me. I was curious, I was jealous, I was excited, but I did not read the book. When I awoke, I decided to write it. What follows is the inspiration from that dream, a vivid hallucination-inspired fury of words detailing various aspects of existence and nonexistence as seen through the mental lens of a twenty-something-year-old. And, just as in the dream, this fury will be called GOD DEATH START
