Three years ago, Meg fled her home, unable to fully trust her husband, Jake. Today she's made a life for herself in Melbourne as a designer. Just as Meg finds some peace and stability, Jake arrives at her doorstep. He desperately wants to know why Meg left. "It's because you were always out working... I grew lonely, that's all." The explanation fails to convince Jake, but Meg can't possibly tell the truth—if she does, it will destroy everything between them.
