Orphaned, widowed, and in desperate need of a change, Eleanor Campbell sets off for Boston in 1832 to join her estranged brother Ian--and attempt to find some small happiness for herself. On the same ship is spoiled Caroline Reid, who has her own airy dreams of being launched into society and snagging a rich and handsome husband. Thrown together onboard ship, the two women's lives soon intertwine in surprising and even dangerous ways.

Set ten years after the events of Far Horizons, the MacDougall and Campbell families face danger, illness, and the doubts of their own hearts as they strive to reach for their dreams in an adolescent American that struggles to maturity.

Originally published in hardcover and written by USAToday bestselling author Kate Hewitt, Another Country is Book Two of The Emigrants Trilogy.
