There's no such thing as ghosts, right? But after the spirit of Ethan Samuels hovers over Micah Chasen's bed and demands that the 11-year old investigate his suspicious death, Micah embarks upon the strangest adventure of his life! As Ethan's ghostwriter, Micah and his new friend, the nerdy Savannah Bishop, hope to solve what appears to have been his ghostly friend's murder over 100 years ago. Will Micah be able to discover the truth behind Ethan's death and allow the spirit to finally rest in peace? And, even more importantly, can Micah help his own family deal with their horrible grief surrounding the death of his older sister? This ghostly historical mystery set in the rugged San Jacinto Mountains of Southern California is suitable for ages 9 and up.
