Thirty-seven-year-old Charlie was once a rising star in a world-class ballet company. Though a series of events made her give up ballet nearly two decades ago, she is unable to let go of the ballerina she once was and the memories of the dancing boy she once loved. Charlie now has a good career and a perfect boyfriend who wants to marry her, but her persistent nightmares keep her too stuck in the past to commit to the present.

When Charlie mysteriously wakes up one morning in her 17 year-old body, she discovers she must re-inhabit the life she has desperately been trying to forget. As Charlie steps back into her old life and onto the stage, she is determined to remedy the mistakes she once made and the pain she once caused—to herself and to others. Will Charlie fix what was broken and be returned to her future? Or will she stay trapped in her past, fated to dance forever?
