"Do you really think only Wal-mart sells products from China? Is the percent of China-made products any lower at, say, Target or Shopko? Do you think only McDonald's cooks up food that will ruin your health if you choose to indulge in it to excess? What makes the other fast-food restaurants any healthier for you? In this book I'm going to explore these and other issues. I'm not going to be delving into their legal issues or a bunch of statistics. This is just my take as a customer and consumer." - Lucy As a consumer and a customer, the author addresses common complaints about Wal-mart and McDonald's. Written in a conversational tone it doesn't touch on their legal problems and financial situations, but rather on how these two corporations affect the common people and our lives.
