Excerpt:

220. As soon as you can say what you think and not what some other person had thought for you, you are on your way to being a remarkable man. -J.M. Barrie

221. For God's sake give me the young man who has brains enough to make a fool of himself. -Robert Louis Stevenson

222. The right man is the one that seizes the moment. -Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

223. Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness that most frightens us.' We ask ourselves, Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small does not serve the world. There's nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We are all meant to shine, as children do. We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us. It's not just in some of us; it's in everyone. And as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we're liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others. -Marianna Williamson, A Return to Love.

224. Run in God's name and let the world stand back in wonder. -Chariots of Fire (movie)

225. Unlike others who preceded them, the Wright Brothers embraced the idea that their vehicle would more closely resemble the precarious bicycle rather than the steady wagon. They saw the airplane as an inherently unstable vehicle, yet one that could, through calculation and boldness, be mastered or controlled. -Jerry Daniels,

226. The only life worth living is the adventurous life. Of such a life the dominant characteristic is that it is unafraid. It is unafraid of what other people think . . . It does not adapt either its pace or its objectives to the pace and objectives of its neighbors. It thinks it's own thoughts, it reads it's own books, it develops it's own hobbies, and it is governed by it's own conscience. The herd may graze where it pleases or stampede where it pleases, but he who lives the adventurous life will remain unafraid when he finds himself alone. -Raymond B. Fosdick

227. Let us dare to face the situation. -Albert Schweitzer

228. Be bold, and mighty forces will come to your aid. -Basil King

229. Even God lends a hand to honest boldness. -Menander,

230. He that does not ask will never get a bargain. -French Proverb
