Learn how to use inner sonar to see-feel others' hearts and wake while dreaming. Lucid dreaming is a core teaching of DolphinOlogy. When one is lucid in life, one becomes more apt to be lucid in dream, which is far more difficult, because a dream is a constant stream of karmic seeds coming at the witness of the dream. And when two dream lucidly together, creation becomes exponential. This would seem to be the definition of Higher Consciousness. Many inventors have tapped into the ability to have lucid dreams. James Cameron credits lucid dreaming with the inspiration behind AVATAR. The sewing machine was invented in a lucid dream. Paul McCartney, Beethoven, and many prolific artists have brought music from the dream state. What did you dream? Dolphins are the only beings on the planet that naturally remain awake while they sleep. Half of their brain dreams in a R.E.M state of consciousness; the other half remains awake, with an eye open underwater. Only the most accomplished Yogis and Tribal Dream Masters can achieve this state when in deep practice. Activate your inner Dolphin with DolphinOlogy.
