Hidden Devotion (Trinity Masters Book 5) Lila Dubois, Mari Carr

A reluctant leader. A CIA handler. A lost legacy.

Juliette Adams has spent her life running...from her father, from her arranged marriage, from her Trinity Masters legacy. Until the day everything changed and she became Grand Master--a position she was never meant to hold.

Devon Asher has more than a few secrets, the least of which is his desperate love for Juliette, which shouldn't be a problem since they were betrothed as children. Now that she's Grand Master, his secrets aren't safe.

Franco Garcia Santiago always assumed the tales of the Trinity Masters were fantastical yarns spun by his grandfather, until Juliette appears at his door. Together they delve into the organization's secrets, unaware of the impending danger.

Juliette must decide if she'll turn her back on her destiny or embrace the role of Grand Master, and if she'll use her power to discontinue the trinity marriages she grew up despising, or follow her heart, which tells her happiness lies with both Devon and Franco.
