This allegorical tale provides a contemporary spin on the biblical story of The Woman at the Well. The reader is taken on a journey with Samaris, who experiences the turmoil of losing her father, losing her family and losing the respect of her neighbors. She experiences more loss through five divorces and various forms of abuse, while losing her identity. She is lost and there is no one to point her in the right direction. The very area she lives in seems to be cursed, and every relationship seems to end in more turmoil. Samaris finally meets a stranger who helps her to take the first step in the right direction. Each chapter includes an inspirational message from the author encouraging the believer to take hold of God's promises. You will experience the magnificent flow of praise and worship throughout the book as you read the lyrics to songs sung by the late Evangelist Sheree Williams, and others written by the author.
