More Than Friends (A More Than... Book 1) Chenise A. Miller

To family and friends, it's no secret that Cassidy aspires to be one of the first female commentators in the NFL. What she's been hiding, however, are her true feelings for her best friend, Malik. When his career moves him closer to her, she vows to keep her love for him under lock and key. But when their relationship changes, she wonders if years of friendship are stronger than a few rocky months.

Malik's at the top of his game; being drafted into the NFL has always been his dream. On the outside he has everything he wants, but below the surface he struggles with issues he thought he left back home. Cassidy has always been his source of comfort, but when Robyn walks into his life, he finds it hard to resist her charm and everything that comes with it.

With their friendship inconsistent and unreliable, they wonder if they can remain best friends or if they've outgrown the old title. Cassidy and Malik must decide what and who matters most.
