The Fellowship of Amorous Gentlemen: Erotic Victorian Encounters Michael Hemmingson

Before The League of Extraordinary Gentlemen, and long before The Fellowship of the Ring, came the Fellowship of Amorous Gentlemen, a group of upper-class men-about-town who swashed and buckled their way through every eligible young female in 19th-century London, leaving nothing but pleasure in their wake.

Some of these unsung heroes of the night included Phileas Fogg, Allan Quatermain, Captain Nemo, and the Great Detective himself (together with the Good Doctor, his dutiful companion). Join us now in those thrilling days of yesteryear, when all decent women sported constricting, concealing corsets - and all the pretty ones wore nothing at all!
