The Life of William Booth - Volumes 1 and 2 Harold Begbie

This has been called the authoritative, definitive, and best work concerning the life and ministry of William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army. There is a good reason for this! It is a fantastic collection of his life, and includes many letters and journals of his that paint a vivid picture of his life. There is something really special in reading some of his correspondence with his 'friend' Catherine, and following the letters until she becomes his wife.

This edition includes both volumes in the biography and is complete. Don't pay more than you have to for this collection!

Also included is an Active Table of Contents to take you to any point in General Booth's life.
