The Tree Man D.W. Gillespie

When the wind died down and the rain receded, the storm left more than just broken limbs for the small town family to clean up. In the crook of an ancient, lightning-struck tree, they find something they never expected.

A skeleton, the bony arms entwined, hidden away from the sun.

No one knew how it came to rest inside of the tree, but each of them see something different in those hollow eyes.

Hope. Fortune. Madness.

The Treeman offers this, and more. But the price they pay might be greater than any of them imagined.
